Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Tuesday 29 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with sunny spells, cloudier in the north.

Today:
Central and western parts mainly dry with increasingly warm sunshine. However low cloud and patchy light rain likely across far north and east, light northerly breezes will push low cloud inland later in the day.

Tonight:
Staying clear for much of the west but elsewhere low cloud, mist and drizzle is likely to push inland during the evening and linger through the night.

Wednesday:
A bright start in the west and slowly brightening up elsewhere. Low cloud and mist will be slow to clear in the northeast and may be persistent on northeast coasts.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Largely dry and bright on Thursday and Friday, especially across the west, some warm sunshine here. Low cloud never far from east coasts. Cloudy with a few showers on Saturday.
